The fourth Belgrade Young Economists Conference, organised by the Faculty of Economics of the University of Belgrade (Prof. Branko Urošević) with the support of UniCredit & Universities, will take place at the University of Belgrade on 10 and 11 June 2017. The goal of the meeting is to help young researchers polish their papers before publishing them in reputable international journals and to build a vibrant network.

Main speakers, among the others:
- Charles Engel (University of Wisconsin, Madison)
- Boyan Jovanovic (New York University)
- Pavle Petrović (Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade)
- Branko Urošević (Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade and the National Bank of Serbia)
- Milan Nedeljković (National Bank of Serbia)

Linked to this conference, UniCredit & Universities has launched a Best Paper Award Competition to reward the best paper presented by young researchers at the event. The winner will award €1,500 before tax.

The winner is Lorenzo Bretschger with his paper "From Local to Global: Offshoring and Asset Prices"
